

Dixie District Schools uses an online progress monitoring program called Thinkgate to assess students three times per year. Thinkgate provides teachers, school-based administrators, and district level administrators with live data on individual students throughout the district. Teachers use this information to tailor instruction to the individual needs of their students. Thinkgate assesses reading, math (including Algebra I and Geometry), and science (including Biology).