

The Stanford Early School Achievement Test (SESAT) and the Stanford Achievement Test Series, Tenth Edition (SAT10) offers research-based, valid and reliable instrument to measure students' performance on high academic standards. Both are multiple choice tests and are given in the spring of year each school year. SESAT is administered to Kindergarten students, while the SAT10 is given to students in first and second grades.