

Description:

The Health Science program consist of: a study of the human body-both structurally and functionally, provides students with an in-depth knowledge of the health care system and associated occupations, emphasis is placed on interpersonal skills, use of technology, ethics, the development of critical thinking and problem solving skills. First aid skills, measurement of vital signs and medical terminology are an integral part of the courses.

Program Goal:

Provide students with a foundation of knowledge and experiences in the study of Health Science Careers and the choosing of a desired occupation.

Courses:

- Medical Skills and Services
- Health Science 1- Anatomy and Physiology
- Health Science 2- Health Science Foundations
- Allied Health Assisting (Nursing Assistant 3 & Allied Health 3)

Industry Certifications Options:

- American Heart Association Basic Life Support(CPR) Certification
- Certified Nursing Assistant (CNA) Licensure
- Certified Medical Administrative Assistant

Career Opportunities:

- Certified Nursing Assistant (CNA)
- Registered Nurse (RN)
- Medical Administrative Assistant
- Physical Therapist
- Medical Technician

